

CITY OF TALLADEGA
CITY COUNCIL CALLED ZOOM MEETING
February 8, 2021 – 9:00 am

The City Council of the City of Talladega met in a called meeting on Monday, February 8, 2020 at 9:00 a.m., via Zoom. The meeting was called to order and the following were present: Council President Trae Williams, Councilman Horace Patterson, Council Member Spratlin, Councilman Joseph K. Power, Jr. and Interim City Manager Kelsey Gallahar.

Invocation by Councilman Patterson.

Brought before the Council was a request from Talladega Bottling Works and Big Barn artists Group, LLC to host a two-day music festival on March 26 and 27, 2021. Kevin Smith deferred to Angie Gregory concerning the details of the request. It was requested that there be a waiver of permits/business license requirements for the weekend, the waiver of the sound ordinance from 11pm to midnight each day of the event, a waiver of the Open Alcoholic Beverage Container restriction and the use of the Davey Alliston Memorial Park and parking spaces, and the parking lot in the rear of the Talladega Bottling Works Building, along with a request for a temporary closure of sections of Court Street, East Coffee St. and Bednash Drive. City Attorney O'Brien commented that a user agreement with a cost associated would be needed as the event was a for profit event. Motion by Council President Williams with a second from Council Member Spratlin for the approval of the request pending the drawing up of the user agreement. Roll Call. AYES: All.

Motion by Councilman Patterson with a second from Council Member Spratlin for adjournment. AYES: All.
