Mayor Ragland commented that with the nationwide trend of deaths and robberies from sales of items from Facebook and other social media platforms, it would be a good idea to create a green space in the Police Department parking lot such as the one Fultondale has. Also, mentioned was the possibility of imposing a curfew from 10pm to 6am on individuals 18 and under, however those with jobs could be given permission by parents or the employer to be out past that time.

City Manager Hill wished to comment that the City has been accepted into Opportunity Zone Alabama which is intended to expand neighborhoods and attract investment and wished to thank Dr. Mascia from AIDB, Chad Jones, Councilman Power, Jimmy Williams, and the new president of Talladega College. He next deferred to Chad Jones from First Bank of Alabama.

Chad Jones commented that First Bank of Alabama wished to recognize the impact the Opportunity Zone would have an impact and what it can clean up on Battle Street. He also wished to thank City Manager Hill and Jimmy Williams and for allowing him to be a part of the process.

City Manager Hill commented that the project chosen was to help new business and the number of building permits, unemployment rate, school system rate, percentage of poverty rate and unemployment rate. The priority is the Main Street revitalization and restore sense of pride and looking at being pedestrian friendly. The second priority is housing and broadband, and the third project is the Purefoy Hotel, mentioning that it had already been purchased with the intention of bringing that back into a boutique hotel. The third priority would be another grocery store, clothing store, and entertainment. Another project would be an election for students in certain wards to hear what they want in their districts. It was also mentioned that the Capital Improvement Project budget would not be brought forth yet until an inspection from the insurance company of the City's roofs at several facilities had been done. He also wished to acknowledge the new HR Director, Tanna Falkner and informed the Council that there was a vacancy in the Finance Department for the CFO, interviews for the Revenue Officer position, and wished to recognize the 20 interns as well as the deferring to the new Police Chief.

Police Chief Thomas wished to thank everyone for the opportunity and stated she is looking forward to building relationships in the community.

City Manager Hill also stated that he had meetings with Red Cross concerning storm shelters, thanked the Council for passing the ARPA which would pump resources back into the community, and attended a Lions Club Meeting. Also mentioned was the fact the City has new fleet tracking system in City vehicles, mentioned that there was a mobile cell tower at the Speedway during race time, attended a Water Color exhibit, met with Steve Sanders to make sure the City was operating efficiently, mentioned the Induction Ceremony at Davy Allison Park, wished to thank Community Appearance, Hall of Heroes, Lauren Deal, and Public Works, mentioned that the pay scale study had been received back from Auburn, but is still a work in progress, and deferred to Chad Jones from First Bank of Alabama.

Chad Jones wished to inform the Council that First Bank of Alabama will no longer be offering trust fund services and that the City's trust fund accounts would be served by Raymond James.

City Manager Hill next wished to congratulate Talladega College for their second-place finish in the NAIA games, mentioned that the City held its annual Arbor Day observance at Westgate with a tree planted in honor of Alan Wicher, participated in a ride along in the City to look at overgrown properties, wished to thank the Council for attending the ground breaking at Presbyterian Homes, and briefly went over several department monthly reports.

Council Member Hall commented that she agreed with the Mayor concerning the imposing of the curfew.
