

CITY OF TALLADEGA
CITY COUNCIL WORK SESSION
May 14, 2020 – 5:00 pm

The City Council of the City of Talladega met in a work session on Thursday, May 14, 2020 at 5:00 p.m., at the Talladega Public Library. The meeting was called to order and the following were present: Council President Joseph K. Power, Councilman Horace Patterson, Council Member Vickey R. Hall, Council Member Betty C. Spratlin, Councilman Trae Williams, and City Manager Beth Cheeks.

Brought before the Council was a discussion concerning the Capital Improvement Project for the Water Department and the City, the Stonehill project, and some house keeping items. There was also some discussion concerning tax revenue for the City during the Covid19 pandemic. It was stated that despite fears of the virus, the total March revenue was up over $70,000 from 2019 with the grocery revenue up over $150,000. Also discussed was the repair of the Heritage Hall basement and window wells, the HVAC repair located at City Hall, and the Eastside Building. It was stated that the Samaritan House is interested in the Eastside Building. There was no action taken.

Motion by Councilman Patterson for adjournment. AYES: All.
